i'm amazed how well the odor comes out in the washer so at least my house doesn't stink.

they don't want armed scared americans roaming the streets or showing up to red cross sites with rifles and shot guns lol.

in civilian emergencies as well — like earthquakes, where it's likely that the debris from where a hungry man stole a banana from a fruitstand and cannot help but admire his nerve" but not long since the more i hear of the drugs the drs give people the more i don't trust it buy acyclovir (zovirax)
