the annex to the letter sets out criteria to determine when data processed by such apps and devices will be considered to be health data you need to install the software in your blackberry, and then use the software to upload documents onto the activeprint servers